Section to be completed BEFORE THE MOBILITY

I. PROPOSED MOBILITY PROGRAMME

Language of training: .....English.....

Is the mobility a part of a blended mobility programme?  Yes  No

Overall objectives of the mobility:

1. Personal and Professional Development
2. Academic and Research Excellence
3. Strengthening Institutional Capacity
4. Internationalisation and Cultural Exchange
5. Innovation and Modernisation
6. Networking
7. Global Awareness
8. Career Opportunities
9. Language Skills Development

Training activity to develop pedagogical and/or curriculum design skills:

Yes  No

Added value of the mobility (in the context of the modernisation and internationalisation strategies of the institutions involved):

The term "added value of the mobility" in this context refers to the additional benefits or advantages that the mobility of students or staff brings to the participating institutions:

- Mobility exposes to different cultures, practices, and teaching methodologies, fostering diversity within institutions.
- It helps to create international networks and partnerships, opening avenues for collaborations and joint ventures.
- Institutions can adopt and integrate best practices and innovative approaches from partnering institutions.
- Advanced technologies and learning methodologies can accelerate modernisation processes within institutions.
- Mobility helps in enhancing the skills and competencies of both students and staff.
- It offers opportunities for professional development and learning, enhancing the capacity of individuals.

- Inter-institutional mobility contributes to improving the quality of education and research.
- It facilitates the exchange of knowledge, ideas, and expertise between institutions.
- Institutions involved in mobility programs often gain recognition at the international level.
- The international activity enhances the reputation of the institutions, making them more attractive to prospective students, faculty, and researchers.
- Mobility helps clarify global perspective and understand global trends and challenges.
- It promotes understanding and incorporation of long-lasting practices in education and research.

In essence, the added value of mobility aligns with the overarching goals of modernisation and internationalisation by promoting a global outlook, fostering innovation, and driving improvements in education and research quality for the institutions involved.

Activities to be carried out:

Lectures, seminars, discussions, workshops

Expected outcomes and impact (e.g. on the professional development of the staff member and on both institutions):

- Learn new innovative and useful methods, to experience and gain an insight into the culture of Latvia
- Establish new contacts and acquaintances with colleagues (partners) for further cooperation

II. COMMITMENT OF THE THREE PARTIES

By signing<sup>7</sup> this document, the staff member, the sending institution and the receiving institution/enterprise confirm that they approve the proposed mobility agreement.

The sending higher education institution supports the staff mobility as part of its modernisation and internationalisation strategy and will recognise it as a component in any evaluation or assessment of the staff member.

The staff member will share his/her experience, in particular its impact on his/her professional development and on the sending higher education institution, as a source of inspiration to others.

The staff member and the beneficiary institution commit to the requirements set out in the grant agreement signed between them.

The staff member and the receiving institution/enterprise will communicate to the sending institution any problems or changes regarding the proposed mobility programme or mobility period.

- In case the mobility combines teaching and training activities, the mobility agreement for teaching template should be used and adjusted to fit both activity types.
- In the case of mobility between Programme and Partner Countries, this agreement must be always signed by the staff member, the Programme Country HEI as beneficiary and the Partner Country HEI as sending or receiving organisation. In case of mobility from Partner Country HEIs to Programme Country enterprises the last box should be duplicated to include the signature of the Programme Country HEI (the beneficiary) and the receiving organisation (four signatures in total).

<sup>2</sup> Seniority: Junior (approx. < 10 years of experience), Intermediate (approx. > 10 and < 20 years of experience) or Senior (approx. > 20 years of experience).

<sup>3</sup> Nationality: Country to which the person belongs administratively and that issues the ID card and/or passport.

<sup>4</sup> Erasmus Code: A unique identifier that every higher education institution that has been awarded with the Erasmus Charter for Higher Education receives. It is only applicable to higher education institutions located in Programme Countries.

<sup>5</sup> Country code: ISO 3166-2 country codes available at: <https://www.iso.org/obp/ui/#search>.

<sup>6</sup> Any Programme Country enterprise or, more generally, any public or private organisation active in the labour market or in the fields of education, training and youth.

<sup>7</sup> Circulating papers with original signatures is not compulsory. Scanned copies of signatures or electronic signatures may be accepted, depending on the national legislation of the country of the sending institution (in the case of mobility with Partner Countries: the national legislation of the Programme Country). Certificates of attendance can be provided electronically or through any other means accessible to the staff member and the sending institution.
