Abstracts must be attached with: the participant's application form, review by the scientific supervisor (for students, masters, postgraduates).

Requirements for the design of materials: volume: 2–4 pages, format: A-4, margins 20/20/20/20 mm, font: Times New Roman 14, spacing - 1.5, without paragraph indentation, Word text editor, the name of the document file – author's surname in English.

Name and surname of the author (co-authors) are given in the center of the page in italics. From the next paragraph in the center – the title of the abstract in capital letters in bold: first in Ukrainian, then in English – if the theses are written in Ukrainian; and first in English, then in Ukrainian – if the theses are written in English. After 1 interval along the width of the page, the text of theses is to be presented.

Abstract of the report should contain a logical and consistent presentation of the main aspects of the scientific report to be announced at the conference. They necessarily contain scientific novelty, fix the priority of the author and do not repeat the materials presented in other publications. Due to the small volume of theses, the list of references, citations and references in their text are not provided.

Plagiarism, both in the text and in the illustrative material, is strictly prohibited. Theses that do not pass the anti-plagiarism check are not allowed for the publication.

The author of the work is responsible for the reliability of the information. The organizing committee reserves the right to select abstracts of reports.

Financial terms of participation in the conference

Due to hostilities, the editorial department will accept abstracts free of charge.

All conference participants will receive electronic certificates. Participants of the conference, who will speak at the conference with a report, receive a certificate for 12 hours of advanced training, other participants – for 6 hours.

If desired, the authors can order printed versions of the certificate, program and materials of the conference for an extra fee by reaching the editorial and publishing department at the following email: rvv2000k@ukr.net

For organizational issues, contact the organizing committee at the e-mail addresses of the relevant research fields.
