Considered and approved at a meeting of the Faculty of musical art Council Protocol No. 8
dated February 13, 2023

The entrance exam for foreigners (language of instruction (English) and major) is conducted with the aim of identifying language competencies in English, as well as the knowledge and professional skills of entrants who wish to continue their studies at KhSAC for a master's degree in order to improve their professional skills for further creative and performing, pedagogical and scientific activities in the field of musical art, as well as work in professional musical groups. The entrance exam for foreigners consists of Part I – the language of instruction (English), and Part II – the subject. Based on the results of the two parts, a total score is given, which is the only component of the competitive score for this category of entrants.

PART I LANGUAGE OF INSTRUCTION (ENGLISH)

The entrance exam program in a foreign language (English) is intended for foreigners and stateless persons who have expressed a desire to obtain an educational degree "MASTER" in Ukraine and know the language of instruction (English) to the extent that corresponds to the level of "independent user" according to the classification Pan-European recommendations on language education (level B1-B2).

THE PURPOSE AND TASKS OF THE ENTRANCE EXAM

The purpose of the entrance exam is to determine the level of English language training of foreign and stateless master's degree applicants (hereinafter referred to as applicants) to ensure quality training of foreign and stateless specialists. During the entrance exam, master's degree applicants must demonstrate adequate language, speech and sociocultural competencies.

Linguistic competence involves the applicant's knowledge of phonetic, orthographic, lexical, orthographic, grammatical and stylistic norms of the modern English language.

Speech competence covers the applicant's ability to perceive and reproduce the information in English.

Sociocultural competence involves the applicant's knowledge of country studies and cultural studies, as well as the ability to use this knowledge in various language situations in the process of communicating with representatives of other cultures.

The objects of assessment are language competence in reading and writing, as well as lexical and grammatical competence.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ABILITIES AND SKILLS

Components of speech activity are receptive and productive skills.

The candidate's communicative language competence is manifested in the performance of various types of speech activity, namely: perception, production, interaction or mediation (in particular, oral or written). Each of these types of activities can be associated with texts in oral, written, or both forms.

ANNOTATION OF A GENERAL SCIENTIFIC TEXT

The entrance exam provides for the assessment of written communication skills within the professional needs of students and, first of all, the skills of constructing a written statement (annotation) based on a general scientific text, mastering the necessary lexical and semantic constructions used during the description and analysis of a general scientific text, production of a binding written statement.

An abstract of an article involves, first of all, the ability to fully, accurately and deeply understand the main information of a scientific text, to determine the topic of the text, the order of presentation of information in the text, to interpret the conclusions and assessments of the author, to draw conclusions and to be able to present one's own attitude to the read information.

The abstract should have an introductory paragraph design; accurate transfer of facts, absence of distortion of information; neutrality of judgments/transfer of the author's idea; compliance with coherence and logic; adequate brevity of the text, and correct language design. The recommended average volume of the annotation is up to 500-600 printed characters.

CONVERSATION ON THE TOPIC OF SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH

The entrance exam involves the ability to conduct a dialogue on the topic of the future profession. During the entrance exam, the content and communicative content of dialogic speech, the effectiveness and completeness of the disclosure of the dialogue topic, the adequacy of the provided information, the correct use of lexical units and grammatical constructions, the appropriateness and accuracy of their use in oral speech are evaluated.

The master's degree applicant should demonstrate understanding of the problems of his future profession, and talk about the role of his future research in the development of science, culture, and art in his native country and in Ukraine.

- knowledge of the creative work of outstanding domestic and European composers, who represent the stages of development of world musical art;
- the ability to navigate musicological and music-critical literature on current problems of modern art history.

The second element of the creative competition will be held online in real time. The date of the examination (as well as the date of the consultation) will be posted additionally on the academy's website (in the "Schedule of entrance exams" section).

To complete the second element of the creative competition, the applicant must have the technical means necessary to participate in it online in real time. The entrant receives the link and access codes to participate in the contest in advance to the e-mail address specified when sending the video recording of the performance.

Evaluation structure for passing a creative competition

No.	The main elements of the creative competition	Points
1	Performance skills	51-100
2	Theoretical Musicology, history of the world and Ukrainian musical culture	51-100
Maximum score		200

The overall (for two elements of the creative competition) evaluation is given on a 200-point evaluation scale. Entrants who received less than 124 points during the creative competition are not allowed to participate in the competition for admission.
